

Media Advisory

Media Contact:

Lisa M. de Hernández
Public Information Officer
410-313-6353 O. 410-428-7294 M.
ldhernandez@howardcountymd.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 27, 2018

Breast Cancer Awareness Month Recognized by Tree Pinning Ceremony

Columbia, MD – Howard County Health Department will kick-off Breast Cancer Awareness Month with a Remembrance Tree Pinning. The Remembrance Tree celebrates the lives of those who have or have had Breast Cancer. Visitors to the Health Department can pin the names of friends and loved ones on the “tree” to acknowledge their fight against this disease.

WHO: Health Officer, Dr. Maura J. Rossman
County Executive, Allan H. Kittleman (possible)

OTHERS: Deputy Health Officer, Antigone Vickery

WHEN: Tuesday, October 2, 2018
1:00p.m.

WHERE: Howard County Health Department (Lobby)
8930 Stanford Blvd
Columbia, MD 21045

WHAT: A Breast Cancer Awareness Month “tree” pinning to remember those who have fought Breast Cancer.

###